

Don't let your books
go to the dogs.

Animals love to
chew on books.
Please keep them
away from pets.

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.

Fix up your friends, not
your books.

DIY repairs with tape and glue can
do more harm than good. Please don't.

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.

A wet book is
all washed
up.

Moisture can warp
books and mold can
turn them into a
health hazard.

If a book does get wet, return it to the library immediately!

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.

Make a
mental note.

Your highlights and
notes will distract
other readers.
Post-its and paper
clips can damage
pages.

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.

Haven't
cracked a
book all
semester?
Don't start
now.

Pressing on the copier cover can
break a book's spine.
Use the binding-
friendly copier in Olin's basement.

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.

A thirst for knowledge is a good thing.

Drinking
—or eating—
over your
book is not.

Stains from food
and beverages
cannot be removed
and attract insects
and mice.

Wesleyan University Library
is committed to preserving
its collections.