KEYNOTE SPEAKER

ERIC KLINENBERG

Author of
PALACES FOR THE PEOPLE

In his Keynote address, the author advances the idea that the future of democratic societies rests not simply on shared values but on shared spaces. That libraries, childcare centers, bookstores, places of worship, and parks are where crucial, sometimes life-saving connections, are formed.

The places where people gather and linger, making friends across group lines, strengthen the entire community, and show how social infrastructure is helping solve some of our most pressing challenges: isolation, crime, education, addiction, political polarization, and even climate change.

LIBRARY LAW with Michael Cerone, Esq.,
and other breakout sessions to be held throughout the day.
