A MESSAGE FROM THE NEW JERSEY STATE LIBRARIAN

I hope you will join me in wishing TBBC a very happy 55\textsuperscript{th} birthday this year. I am so proud of the work that the team accomplishes and their commitment to helping readers find the right book.

The Fall Festival at Grounds For Sculpture promises to be a great event, with tactile tours and art activities. I am grateful for the generosity of the Friends of the Library for the Blind and Handicapped in supporting free admission tickets for a select number of attendees and a guest. And thank you to the Grounds For Sculpture for a reduced admission price for all other attendees. All ages are welcome and we hope you can attend.

Be safe and be well.

Thank you,

\textit{Jen}

Jennifer R. Nelson, New Jersey State Librarian

• Your choice of workshop or guided walking touch tour
TRANSPORTATION: Attendees must make their own transportation plans.

10:00 am - 11:00 am: Registration

11:00 am - 12:00 pm: Choice of 1 Art Workshop or Guided Walking Touch Tour

- Art Workshops:
  - Art Workshop 1: Abstract Fireworks Painting: Learn innovative ways to use household items to create a masterful abstract painting. This step by step abstract painting workshop is for everyone who is willing to have an enjoyable time! Previous painting experience in acrylic or paint is not required.
  - Art Workshop 2: Texture field collage: We will be discussing expressionist art and making our own texture field art pieces. Expressionist art is made to present things that are not objects, like emotions and responses to events. We will discuss famous expressionist work and explore the communication of feelings through texture.

- Guided Walking Touch Tours: Discover the wonders of the Grounds For Sculpture! Register for a docent-led touch tour featuring a variety of sculptures. All Guided Walking Touch Tours will last about 45 minutes.
  - Touch Tour Group: A walking tour that is moderately paced and will highlight tactile sculptures around the grounds.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM FOR TEENS AND CHILDREN

This summer was a huge success as we returned to our by-mail summer program after taking two years off due to the pandemic. Participants received 4 packages over the summer full of craft ideas, trivia, and even a stuffed plush shark, amongst other fun goodies. The packages were especially popular amongst our braille readers! Thanks to all who participated! And a very special “Thank You!” to the Friends of the Library for their continued support of our summer program!

We are looking forward to another fun summer next year. Next year’s theme is All Together Now! If you are already looking forward to next summer and would like to register now, we’d love to have you! Please email the Youth Services Department at TBBCYouth@njstatelib.org. As a reminder, TBBC’s summer reading program is open to any child or teen TBBC patron!

THE MANY FACES OF BARD EVENT

The Library of Congress is holding programs of interest to patrons of the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled entitled The Many Faces of BARD.

Next month’s The Many Faces of BARD program will be presented in Spanish and led by Juana Gonzalez and Yanci Munoz, who are reader advisors at the Braille Institute in Los Angeles, CA. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. eastern time on Thursday, October 13, and will last for one hour.

The session will begin with a brief presentation. The remainder of the time will be spent answering questions related to the presentation or to BARD usage in general. Since the entire program will be presented in Spanish, NLS requests that questions also be posed in Spanish.

The session can be joined by going to https://loc.zoomgov.com/j/1611161911?pwd=bVh5ejFsWFBLL21KY0VqahIRMUisQT09 on a computer or calling 1-669-254-5252. Full Zoom invitation information follows. To call into a session, participants must use the telephone numbers provided here for Zoom.gov rather than the regular Zoom telephone numbers.

Upon connecting, participants will be placed in a virtual waiting room until the program begins. When they enter the room, they will be on mute, and they should remain on mute unless the host calls on them to speak. At that time, they may unmute by using Alt-A from a computer or star 6 if dialing in by phone.

All The Many Faces of BARD programs are recorded. If participants do not want to be on the recording, they should refrain from speaking.

TBBC CELEBRATES 55 YEARS OF SERVICE

For 55 years, TBBC has been providing services and accessible books to New Jersey residents who are blind or print disabled. In that time, we have seen many changes – from records to cassettes to books you can listen to on your smartphone!

Did you know that New Jersey residents used to have their books sent from Philadelphia? Or that members of the library were sent records, and a record player, in the mail? Our programs have ranged from story hours to summer reading, from visiting the circus to Fall Festivals at Grounds for Sculpture. Wait till you hear about the race car!

Come learn about TBBC, past, present and future, and celebrate our 55 years by attending our September 30 Webinar! It’s at 12:00, and more information is here:
